How to Guide

You may find it useful to read the 'How to Guide' before adding your information.

how_to_guide.pdf

Adding Activities

Your entry will be moderated by approved administrators and, once approved, will go live on the website, allowing people to access and learn all about the activities Swindon has to offer. Users can also rate and review any activity/event listed, allowing providers to receive feedback for their activities.

Once your information has been added you may want to update it, edit it or add another activity/event, simply click on the 'Access your activity listing' link below.

Access your activity listing

Data Protection

Does your organisation need to be registered with the Information Commissioners Office?

Some not-for-profit organisations are exempt from notification. However, if a voluntary organisation is processing personal information other than its own volunteer's information; then it is likely that it will be required to notify and register with the Information Commissioners Office (ICO).

Things to be aware of.....

We understand how important it is for parents/carers to feel confident about the suitability and safety of the activity they are sending their child to. We have compiled a list of things you should expect to see:

- The activity session and participants are being safely supervised, with good ratio between staff and children
- The activity organisers allow you to visit the activity session before you sign up and will encourage you to stay and watch or become involved
- The activity session is being delivered by staff that have the relevant qualifications and training
- The activity organisers and the staff allow time for you to raise any concerns or ask any questions
- All staff working with children or vulnerable adults have criminal records checks (known as a CRB) to check their suitability
- The activity organisers interview and obtain references for all members of staff
- The activity session organisers will ask your permission if they are intending to take your child on outside visits, activities or trips
- There will access to a qualified first aider at the activity session
- Sessions organisers will be fully insured to deliver the activity session
- Sessions will take place in suitable and safe places
